The following regulations and fees are Washington State Law, and we must abide by them at all times.

All of the following is required for us to release a vehicle:

The vehicle must be registered to the person seeking to redeem it

The registered or legal owner must be present and have valid picture identification

All towing and storage fees must be paid

1. The person wishing to redeem the vehicle must be the registered or legal owner according to Department of Licensing records.

The vehicle must be registered to the person seeking to redeem the vehicle. If you have purchased the vehicle, but have not yet transferred the registration into your name, you must do so before attempting to redeem the vehicle.

2. The registered owner and legal owner must present valid picture identification such as a driver's license, state identification card, passport or other verified identification.

The person seeking to redeem the vehicle must have valid picture identification. No one can claim a vehicle without valid identification. If you do not have valid picture identification, you must go to a licensing agent and transfer the registration of the vehicle into the name of someone who does have valid picture identification.

3. All towing and storage fees must be paid before the vehicle can be released from impound.

The minimum fees for a Private Property impound entering our yard is $250.00 plus sales tax. Typical fees are:

- Towing fee is $225.00 per hour, per private class "A/S" rate schedule with the DOL.
- Storage Fee is $50.00 per day, Calculated to the nearest half day ($25.00 per half)
- An afterhours release fee of $80 will be charged if vehicle or contents are released after normal business hours of 8:00am to 5:00pm Monday through Friday.

 These rates are current as of May 1st 2010 but are subject to change.
